

Young Scientist Best Paper Award

announced by the URSI Italian National Committee

The 2025 Annual Meeting of the URSI Italian National Committee (<http://www.ursi.cnr.it/index.html>) will be held in Bologna, on June 25-26, 2025 and it will be co-located with the 2025 International Symposium on Electromagnetic Theory organized by URSI Commission B (<https://www.emts2025.it/>).

A Best Paper Award, named after Prof. Roberto Sorrentino, is announced by the URSI Italian National Committee for Young Scientists researching on topics belonging to all the URSI Scientific Commissions.

To qualify for the Award, the Young Scientist (YS) applicant:

- must be less than 35 years old on June 25, 2025;
- should submit a 3-4 pages paper to the Bologna 2025 Meeting of the URSI Italian National Committee, of which she or he is the principal author.

The paper template can be downloaded at <http://www.ursi.cnr.it/Meetings.html>. All YS applicants must send their paper, together with their CVs and a list of publications in PDF format to:

Prof. Carlo Carobbi, University of Florence

Email: carlo.carobbi@unifi.it

Prof. Giuliano Manara, University of Pisa

Email: giuliano.manara@unipi.it by the following deadline: Sunday, May 18th, 2025. An acknowledgement will be issued.

The Italian URSI Young Scientist Program (YSP) Committee will examine all the applications and select three finalists. The YSP Committee will notify all the YS applicants of the review results by e-mail. Within 3 days from the notification, every finalist must confirm that she/he will attend the meeting. The list of the finalists will be announced on the Italian URSI website (<http://www.ursi.cnr.it/index.html>).

The oral presentations of the three finalists are scheduled in the afternoon of June 25th, 2025 and will be evaluated by the Italian URSI YSP Committee. Presentations will be in English. All the finalists will receive an Honorary Mention and the winner will be awarded a 500 € prize during the banquet of EMTS 2025 held on the evening of the same day.

All the three finalists will be invited to submit an extended version of their papers to the URSI Radio Science Letters.

For any inquiries, please contact Prof. Carlo Carobbi and Prof. Giuliano Manara. Further information about the Best Paper Award is available here <http://www.ursi.cnr.it/index.html>.
